Other application requirements (level, language, etc.)

While most courses at Osnabrück University are taught in German, an ever-increasing number of courses is taught in English across all disciplines. Although we do not require any language proficiency tests, we strongly recommend to nominate students that come up to below listed proficiency levels in either English and/or German.

An English level of B2 (according to the CEFR) roughly translates to:

IELTS	TOEIC (R&L) Total	TOEFL iBT	TOEFL PBT	Global Scale of English (Pearson)	Cambridge University – Cambridge English Language Assessment
5.5-6.5	785-940	72-94	543-626	59-75	Cambridge First Certificate in English (FCE)

A German level of B2 (according to the CEFR) roughly translates to:

Deutsches Sprachdiplom DSD	Test DaF	DSH	TELC	UNICERT	Goethe-Institut
DSD II	TDN 3/4 (Niveaustufe)	DSH-1	TELC B2	UNICERT II	B2

Programmes/courses available for exchange students

A limited number of courses can be chosen from other disciplines at UOS. However, all incoming students are strongly encouraged to take at least half of their courses at the faculty their home university has an agreement with. For more details on English taught options, please refer to our brochure "Student exchange at UOS" (below).

Are students required to register for courses before their arrival or upon arrival?

Students can register right after their enrolment at UOS. The enrolment process starts approx. 2 months before their arrival.

Services Available for Exchange Students

- The International Office's incoming team offers extensive services and advice before and after their arrival at UOS. A bi-annual online pre-arrival orientation session helps students to prepare their stay prior to their arrival in Osnabrück.

- Welcome Week

A week full of networking and socialising events as well as support with administrative processes for our new international students.

- German Language Courses

The Language Center offers German courses on various levels for international students which are free of charge:

www.uni-osnabrueck.de/en/university/service-facilities/zentrale-einrichtungen/language-center/ -> Kursangebot -> German courses

There are also special technical language courses for international students studying law, business, humanities or social sciences.

- Intensive German Prep Course (each September)

An intensive German prep course is offered in September each year:

Is accommodation available for exchange students?

There is a contingent of dorm rooms at the students residences Jahnplatz, Jahnstraße, Leggeweg, Lüstringer Straße, Salzmarkt, Sedanstraße and Ziegelstraße especially offered to exchange students from partner universities.

Cooking facilities and shared bathrooms are provided in each flat, washing machines are also available.

What is the cost of accommodation in the students' residences?

Between approx. 250 and 330 EUR per month including bills.

Average living costs per month (food, transportation, etc.)

Approx. 930 EUR (incl. housing)

There are no tuition or administrative fees for exchange students, but they have to pay a social fee to the university (approx. 300 EUR per semester) which includes the semester ticket for free public transport in Osnabrück and its surroundings subsidised meals at the cafeteria, student representation etc.

Are exchange students required to obtain medical insurance?

All students under 30 have to present a valid health insurance when enrolling at Osnabrück University.

It is recommended to take out German statutory health insurance; this costs approximately 110 EUR per month.

Students coming from member states of the European Union can bring their European Health Insurance Card (EHIC) with them and will not have to take out German health insurance if it is valid for the whole study period in Osnabrück.

The Campus

One part of the university is situated in the city centre, and the other part is situated in the district of Westerberg, close to the city centre. Students can reach both locations easily by bus.

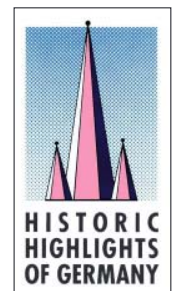

Furthermore, each institute or faculty has its own branch library. The student residences are located all over the city, in the centre as well as in several districts. Cafeterias are found at both university locations.

Osnabrück – The City of Peace

- Osnabrück – peaceful and cosmopolitan
- A wonderful mixture of history and modern times
- A city surrounded by nature
